

Mountain Living Update

October 1, 2009

Celebrating Fall
at Arrowhead

Photo taken by Melisa Hernandez 9-19-09

The Snowmobile Club and other volunteers are working every Saturday clearing the new Willow Park Snowmobile Trail upcountry. The race is on to complete it before the winter snows hit! If you would like to enjoy a worked filled 1/2 day in the Great Outdoors, join these folks!

The new Snowmobile Club Groomer will be used this winter.

Security Notice. At the A.I.A. meeting September 19th, Security stressed that it will be very important to have the yellow numbered stickers or visitor passes posted in cars in the winter parking lot as they will be towing violators. Towing costs are $380 with storage charges of $30 per day.

Pack Rat Alert: Check under the hoods of your automobiles, the rats are looking for a home and can do considerable damage by chewing on your vehicles wiring.

This little guy is caught shaking his leg off as he prepares to join the others.

Geese enjoying a tranquil Autumn afternoon on Hazel Lake. Volunteers have now completed a path around Hazel Lake for walking and this winter cross country skiing. No motorized vehicles will be allowed. Photo by Cheri Ratliff

Linda Dysart and Cheri Ratliff met at the Inn to hang the Photo Clubs pictures. The Inn has invited the club to display their pictures of Arrowhead and the near by areas on their walls. The pictures may be purchased at the Inn.

Sunset - the 1st day of Autumn at Arrowhead 9-23-09
Photo taken by Joanna Misare

October is a great time to put out your high country grass seed.
 Contact Beth Ozyp 642-4461 to purchase native grass and wildflower seeds.

Winter News
 A.I.A. meeting September 19th.
 Reinie Masanetz stressed the importance of homeowners marking their driveways with reflectors and lining their snowmobile routes on their property so that security personnel can safely enter the property in the winter time. He commented that , if routes are not marked, breaking a trail into a property will be at the discretion of security personnel.

The 2010 Shutterbugs Calendars are on Sale

The calendars this year feature beautiful pictures of not only Arrowhead but some of the near by areas. They make wonderful Christmas presents for friends and family. These are made with card stock. We have only a limited amount left.

Wall calendars $18.00
 Desk calendars $7.00

You may purchase them at the Property Owners dinners in Oct. and Nov. and at Pot Luck Dinners
 Shipping is available

Contact cheriratliff@fone.net

Free Standing Desk Calendar