

Mountain Living Update

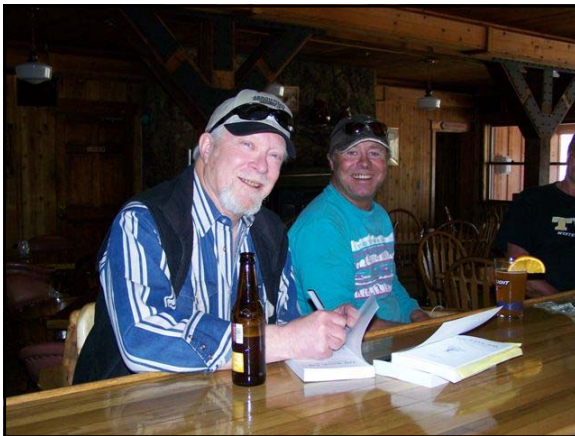

May 26, 2010

Author, Mr. Bob Rosenbaum

Bob signing a book for Carolyn Isbell

Bob signing a copy for Will Hobson

Pictured here Bill and Joyce Boulter and Kathy and Rich Leary photos by Joanna Misare

Our local Author, Bob Rosenbaum

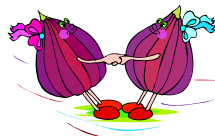

May 22nd, the Inn held a book signing with Bob Rosenbaum from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. People who live on the mountain showed up to congratulate Bob as well as a few part time residents that drove up from Montrose.

The Inn offered free coffee and tea, lemonade, iced tea and sodas to drink - and lots of fresh baked cookies. Several people purchased Bob's books. His first one is titled "The Raid" and the second one is titled "The Bank Job". The 2 detective novels are set in our general area.

He told Joanna Misare that "he felt good that he had support from the community". If you would like to contact Bob about his books or have your copy signed, he may be reached at Bobrose@fone.net. Bob teaches history and related courses at the Montrose campus of Mesa College.

The Inn is Open at Arrowhead
Stop in and say Hi to James,

Thursday thru Sunday
Kathleen and the gang!

Spring is here, period!

The Spring of 2010 will go on record or at least in memories as one of those on again off again Springs! We have been having short snow storms with big flakes and wind that has blown 28 trees across the filing roads. These have been removed by Security. Linda Dysart said her latest snow tally as of May 24th brought the count up to 217 inches. The morning of May 24th we had at least 1 inch of snow and the thermometer stayed at 32* until noon. The people here on the mountain took a vote and said "that's it – no more." We will let you know if Mother Nature agrees!

A very appropriate photo for this time of year by Rich Ostrom

The creek, just moving along. Photo by Cheri Ratliff

New crop of fresh greens. Photo by Cheri Ratliff

Willows displaying those warm colors before they turn green. Photo by Cheri Ratliff

Website Message Board

The message board on the website is for your use. We encourage you to use it for messages to and from people at Arrowhead, Happy Birthday, Anniversaries, Congratulations, Announcements, For Sale items or Give Away items, questions for board members, weather reports and conditions, information on the Inn, club meetings and events, etc. This is a nice feature for property owners. The more it is used the more people will check it. Complete instructions on how to register are on the Message Board. Please join us!

Book Club. The Arrowhead book club met May 21st at the Inn for lunch and discussion. The book "Speak" by Laurie Halse Anderson was discussed. Pat Reitz presented the book to the group.

This month the women brought with them zip-lock bags with various soaps, shampoos, toothpaste, lotions, etc. to give to soldiers in Afghanistan. The soldiers will give them to the women in that country as part of a goodwill effort.

Pat Reitz leading the group.

Joyce Boulter

Linda Dysart and Sally Burchichter enjoying the day.

Dates to Remember:

John Krall Award nominations June 30th

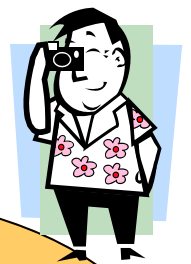

AVFD Forth of July Picnic is on July 3rd this year

Board Candidate Letters of Interest July 31st

Annual AIA meeting July 17th

New Owners Reception July 17th

Winter Residents Meeting Sept. 18th

The Shutterbugs Photography meeting will be held May 28th 9:00 a.m. at the Inn. If you would like to join the group and pick up tips on using your camera and taking photos - contact Rich Ostrom.

Memorial Day weekend

