

Good-bye Summer, Welcome Fall

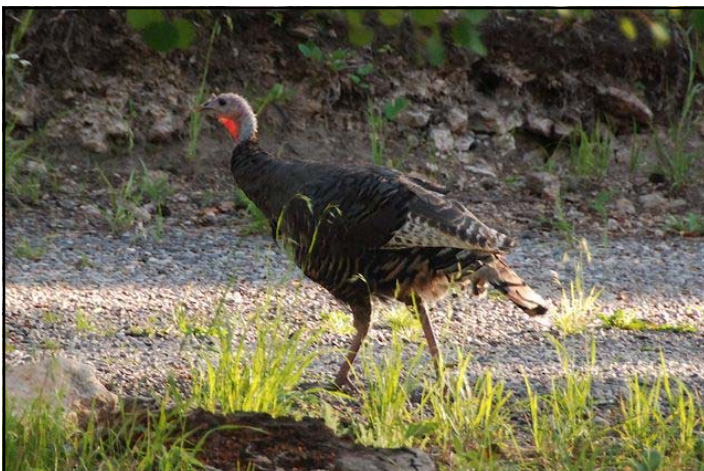

These late summer photos sent in from Bonnie and Bill Conway near Balsam Road.

August 24th. The AVFD had a training exercise led by Fire Chief Brent Mims. They invite everyone to attend meetings and training sessions. Everyone being familiar with the AVFD's fire and safety plans and procedures makes our neighborhood a safer place. Come and participate or come and observe the volunteers in action. Great Arrowhead wildlife photos taken in June by Peter Bates. Can you say "peek-a-boo"?

The Photo Show and Contest was held August 28th outside at the Inn. People enjoyed viewing and voting on all the beautiful pictures taken by local residents. Rich Ostrom won Best of Show for "Sunset at Cimarron", blue ribbon, went to Don Koeltzow for "Antelope Canyon", red ribbon, Rich Ostrom "Somewhere in Time" white ribbon, Rich Ostrom, for "The Last Dollar Gate", Honorable Mention, Kathy Koeltzow, Refrig-a-Deere. Oh by the way, the club voted and Rich won't be invited back next year :)

Having fun while they compete.
That's the AVFD.
Volunteers that work together.

Nancy and Steve Gauthier ride over to watch the events.

and away they go-- hold on guys and gals

You can do it. Faster Star!

Breakfast hits the spot with these folks

Alex is ready to join the AVFD with Mom, of course.

Jim Inskeep and others get a kick out of watching.

"Hey, there is water in here, this could be fun!"
