

Mountain Living Update!

December 13, 2010

The 2010 Christmas party was a wonderful gathering, on a beautiful day, with lots of holiday spirit. Billie Ellis counted 42 people at the event. The main fare for the evening was turkey, ham, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn and green bean casseroles and salads. The Mim's provided punch, both "leaded" and "unleaded." The table decorations were prepared by Carla Vavrik and donated to future Christmas parties as well. All enjoyed the many desserts including, pumpkin and pecan pies and brownies. Berry Paine made a chocolate bourbon pecan pie that was delicious. A cherry pie disappeared fast. There was also a German chocolate cake baked by Star Misner...Yes, Star did it! Julie Nauyokas took several photos of the White Elephant gift exchange.

The presents all were "keepers" this year. Right Leonard?

Dogs in the Wild Update

Mom and pups in the Wild doing better!

Bill and Tracy have been taking care of our Arrowhead mom and pups. The care, food, puppy shots, meds and surgeries. If anyone would like to help with donations contact Eric and Star Johnson.

Moving day at Arrowhead in the winter, sent in from Jen Thomas. My husband and I moved into our new place at Arrowhead in January 2010. This is moving the beds (complete units with heads boards and mattresses) up to the cabin. Talk about the looks and laughs!

Stump Dump Burn Photos

HAPPY NEW YEAR

Where there is smoke there is fire.

Here are a few of the Christmas lights viewed from a snowmobile at Arrowhead. I went out one evening to shoot photos of the lights but realize I need some training on "night photos". Maybe next time Robb Pennie and Rich Ostrom can give me pointers! The website is now showing a listing of the addresses of homes displaying Christmas lights. Cheri

Also, watch for the beautiful sunsets we are having at Arrowhead. The colors in the sky have been awesome!

Happy Holidays
